NEW CHAIRMAN FOR LEYLAND AUSTRALIA

Leyland Australia has announced the appointment of Mr. John Barber as Chairman of the Corporation.

Mr. Barber replaces Mr. J.H. Plane who, as announced previously, had resigned as Chairman to be appointed a Deputy Chairman of British Leyland Motor Corporation Limited.

Mr. Plane remains a non-executive Director of Leyland Australia.

Mr. Barber is a Deputy Managing Director of British Leyland responsible for the finance and planning activities, and also for the manufacturing companies in Australia, South Africa and Spain.

In addition, he is Chairman of the recently acquired Innocenti Company of Milan, which assembles and markets British Leyland vehicles in Italy.

Mr. Barber, a car enthusiast, has reviewed plans for the forward models of the Australian company, and will give special attention to the organisation and implementation of these plans.
